

For the KENT GEOLOGISTS GROUP

A 'Lockdown' geological whimsy to test the group virtually whilst we are unable to meet.

Prepared by Grahame Godding. Please let him know if this is a good idea or not? Maybe even prepare your own suggestion. Thank you.

Please send your answers and comments to Grahame on nid2657@gmail.com

1. I am a rock, but what am I?
  - a. I have some quartz, feldspar and traces of mica
2. Found on a beach, but where?
  - a. Named beatific with a honey insect, the land geographically the home of Beatrix Potter
3. And finally, if I followed Wainwright where might I end up?

Stay safe and let me know what you think?

Kind regards Grahame
